NUMBER 40.

JUDGE HARDIN'S

Address To Legislators Brings Favorable Comment

The speech that Judge Charles A. Hardin made before the Legislators at Frankfort, has brought forth much favorable comment and a recent issue of the Louisville Times says this editorially:

"Everything is new until it is old, and that applies to legislature as well as to the hats and shoes. It is wholly unjust to assume in the beginning of the 1922 General Assembly that it is going to follow the discredited course of several of its predecessors and be more largely concerned with politics and special interests than with popular needs. There has been a change in the world since the suffrage was extended; the Democratic majority should be able to read a lesson in the state vote for the legislature this year; and, without a state administration to hamper it, the legislature majority should be able to show progress and ability this year."

If each member of the General Assembly were to paste in his hat the speech delivered at the House caucus by Judge Hardin, the Democratic state chairman; and then were to sit in conference and chamber looking down into his hat; and then were to follow the admirable precepts of that address—the State of Kentucky would go forward. Perhaps it is too much to expect of every member. But it is not too much to expect the majority to:

Render powerless professional lobbyists seeking special privileges by bringing them into the open.

Abolish useless offices.

Equalize the burdens of taxation.

Put down the lawlessness.

Redeem the proper pledge of both parties.

Avoid playing politics, or "playing" anything and do business.

Certainly, no more heartening or inspirational speech was ever made to a caucus of the legislative majority. The points made are simple of accomplishment. The people of Kentucky expect them to be followed.

The Times intends to proceed on the theory that they will be followed until it has strong evidence to the contrary. It is true that certain names already appearing in the Frankfort dispatches suggest discredited and dangerous influences. But times habit is stronger than the dictates of wisdom, and it may be that responsibility for the appearance of these names in the inner councils is traceable to habit. For the present let it be so.

One thing is sure about the course Judge Hardin advises: Honesty is the best policy. If the majority shall be proved subservient to the professional lobbyist and professional politician class, all the advantage of the last state election will be lost to the Democrats.

The Kentucky Legislature can do a great deal of good if it will but hold on to what is good in the laws that have been enacted. It can do a great deal of harm if it undo the constructive work of its predecessors in relation to the charitable and penal institutions. These have been measurably taken out of the field of politics. The exploiters are eager to bring about a changed condition. They see in the employment of public servants an opportunity to pay political debts and to grease the hand of the grafter.

What are called reform measures will be advanced and they will offer opportunity for those who desire to pose. Reforms in numerous matters of public concern are needed, but the State can at least hope that the law-makers will be conservative in its dealings with new proposals.

Change merely for the sake of change has been tried out nationally. The present administration went into office because the public wanted a change. No more conspicuous example of the futility of mere change can be found in the history of America.

The greatest thing in America is opportunity. The legislators now sitting in Frankfort have this in its full meaning. They can do a great deal of good, just as they can do a great deal of harm. They must shape the destinies of the Commonwealth and the people must look to them for constructive measures.

SHOATS WANTED:—I want to buy about fifty shoats, weighing from 50 to 60 pounds. J. E. Robinson, Lancaster, Ky.

FOR RENT:—House and lot on Main street, with good barn. S. G. Haselden.

MANAGERS NAMED

For Many Of The Pooled Warehouses

Tobacco May Move Next Week

Announcement of the appointment of many of the managers of the Pooled Warehouses was made from Lexington headquarters of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association last Saturday.

Those in charge of the local warehouses will be:

Lancaster—Garrard House: J. M. Farra, manager and general manager for the County; Carroll Allen, weigher; John S. Hocker, Jr., shipping clerk. The Planters' and Growers: S. T. Sanders, manager; June Givens, weigher; Alex Doty, shipping clerk. Bookkeepers, all houses, George A. Brown.

To Receive Crops Soon

"I want to thank the members for their patience and loyalty," said James C. Stone, president and general manager of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, Saturday. "I want to assure them that their officers have been working night and day in order to begin receiving the tobacco of members at the earliest possible moment, and I am glad to say now that we shall be ready to begin receiving the 1921 crop within the next few days."

"I should like to say to the members of the association that it will be better for everybody if every grower will deliver his tobacco in crop lots, as this will greatly facilitate the handling of the tobacco and lessen the work incident to the receiving of 55,000 different lots of tobacco by the association and the advancing of money on each at the time of delivery."

"We are using every effort to begin to receive tobacco by the 15th, or 20th, of this month," says President Stone in a letter to Judge L. L. Walker, "and I feel now that if everything goes along without any hitches of any kind, we will be able to do this."

A system will be worked out for the farmers to book their crops with those in charge of receiving at the warehouses and have the managers to book the number of wagons each day that can be taken care of. It is important that you should come in and arrange about delivering your tobacco before bringing same in.

Reo Bus Line Makes Two Trips To Lexington

The Reo Bus line starting last Monday now makes two trips to Lexington each day instead of one. The first bus leaves the Kengarian Hotel at 7:30 A. M., returning arrives at the Kengarian at 12 Noon, returning to Lexington leaves same place at 12:30 Noon and returns at 7:30 P. M.

The Bus line does not go on to Stanford, the reason that he does not go is on account of the bad roads in Lincoln County.

The fare now is $1.50.

"Community House"

In the last few issues of the Record we have had the pleasure to let the citizens of Garrard county know how bad we need a gymnasium at the L. H. S. building as the many hundred of boys and girls have no place to exercise during the long winter months. Some of our readers suggested a "Community House" with gymnasium built in it for the purpose of playing the winter games, such as basket ball and others. We would like to hear from others along these lines.

B. Y. P. U. Convention

The Fourth District of the South District Association B. Y. P. U., will hold its first convention with the Lancaster Baptist Church Friday, Jan. 20th. Convention will begin at ten o'clock and close in the afternoon.

The program will include addresses by Dr. B. A. Dawes, Rev. J. C. Taylor and R. P. Brown. The Stanford union will give a model B. Y. P. U. program.

The unions in this district are: Lancaster, Stanford, Mt. Hebron and Forks of Dix River.

Anyone interested in B. Y. P. U. work is invited to attend.

Ballard's Obolish Sour is pure, healthful and delicious. It is made in a spotlessly clean mill out of the finest of wheat. Try a sack today. We deliver in town. Hudson & Farnau.

WOODROW WILSON

FOUNDATION FUND

TO HONOR A GREAT AMERICAN

J. R. Mount, Local Chairman

A National Committee of 250 representative men and women has undertaken to establish The Woodrow Wilson Foundation. The purpose of the Foundation is to honor a great American and to create a method whereby public service will be encouraged and conspicuously recognized in this and future generations.

From the income of the Foundation, the Woodrow Wilson Award or Awards will be granted in recognition of distinguished public service.

To establish this Foundation on a fitting basis, the National Committee, through an organization in each State, will make an appeal for a popular subscription. The amount of the fund sought is $1,000,000 or more.

The appeal will be issued to all who believe in those liberal and domestic principles that Woodrow Wilson has so conspicuously championed, and who wish to perpetuate the influence of America's great war leader.

After the fund has been raised a Board of Trustees, composed of eminent Americans, will be entrusted with its permanent administration.

The active campaign for this fund will commence Monday, January 16th, when voluntary subscription will be received by the local chairman, Mr. J. R. Mount, who has named his active committees who will serve throughout the various precincts of the county.

The allotment for Garrard county has been fixed at $300, which amount should be easily raised, all contributions coming voluntarily. To each contributor of one dollar or more, will be mailed a certificate of membership in the Woodrow Wilson Foundation. There are easily three hundred or more admirers of Woodrow Wilson, who will contribute one dollar each to this fund and should come forward now without further solicitation and see that old Garrard does her duty toward this worthy undertaking.

Those wishing to contribute will please make checks payable to Woodrow Wilson Fund and send direct to J. R. Mount or to the treasurer, Mr. Billy Miller, who will assist in receiving this fund.

Ellis—Zanone

The marriage of Mr. Dean Zanone to Miss Flossie Ellis, of Hustonville, was solemnized in Danville on Jan. 3rd, the ceremony being performed by Rev. D. M. Walker of the Baptist church of that city.

Dean has been an ardent lover of this attractive young lady for many months and now that he has won her heart and hand his friends are congratulating him warmly. Mrs. Zanone is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ellis, formerly of Danville, but now residents of Hustonville. She is exceedingly attractive and popular. They will make Lancaster their home for a while at least and are now receiving warmest wishes for a long life filled with happiness and joy.

Club Notes

IMPORTANT MEETING JAN. 19th. Members Please Attend.

The Librarian has obtained two copies of the much talked about book "If Winter Comes." She will be pleased to issue these books at once.

The District Chairman of "Child Welfare" under the direction of Kentucky Federation Club, Mrs. Cowley, of Berea, addressed the Woman's Club last Thursday. She stressed the point of careful supervision by nurse of the health of children in the graded schools. She also drew attention to the matter of nourishing food for children attending school and the importance of play.

Not often has the Club had a clearer, more eloquent or earnest speaker appear before it. The room was filled with interesting listeners.

These questions have so often been asked of Club members regarding the morning lunch that is being served the children of the graded school—"Is it a diet kitchen the club has established?" The reply is "No this would not be quite ethical." Is it a Domestic Science Course that is being tried out? The club only wishes it were. The answer is that the Club for one year has furnished milk and soup to the underweight children of the three lower grades. The teachers are high in praise of the undertaking, and if anyone is sufficiently interested to attend the school at lunch time, the delight and courtesy of the children would be most gratifying.

"Community Service" is the watch word of the Womens Club.

"Let's Be Neighborly"

"Let's be neighborly once more, Like as we used to be; Going visiting friendly like, Just you and me."

Let's be neighborly once more, Thinking each others thoughts, Telling each other our troubles, And helping each other lots.

Let's be neighborly once more, Old fashioned rather than new, Telling the good and forgetting the bad,

There is in both me and you.

Let's be neighborly once more, And think of each other again; And hearing good news of each other, Let's say it aloud.

Amen.

Banquet A

Great Success

The banquet given by the Hoidal Sanford post of the American Legion last Friday evening was a success from every standpoint and was largely attended.

The ladies of the Methodist church served the menu and that alone speaks that it was one of the best ever staged in Lancaster. The service men assembled at the banquet table together with the honored guests about seven o'clock and after the elaborate dinner, President L. G. Davidson of the Lancaster and Garrard County Chamber of Commerce made a few well chosen words of welcome. He was followed by Hon. H. Clay Kaufman in his usual flowery talk. The next was a few words by Hon. Robt. Hays, who told what the local post of the American Legion would try to do the ensuing year. The Legion quartette, consisting of Messrs. Chas. B. Doty, J. Wade Walker, Russell Sanford and Curtis Sanford, were encored and rendered. The next speaker was State Commander Emmett O'Neal, who delivered a masterful address on the Legion and its workers. His talk was a splendid one, and thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Miss Katie Barnes Dickerson added much to the program by playing throughout the evening.

The banquet was served in the lobby of the Court House and decorated so that all forgot that it was our old temple of justice.

The Legion boys are loud in their praise to the ladies of the Methodist church for the service and the bountiful feast which they gave.

New K. Of P. Officers

Last Thursday night the Knights of Pythias of this city installed the following as officers for the next six months:

John K. Moberley, Chancellor Commander; J. L. Davis, Vice Chancellor; Herod Raines, President; Hugh Mobley, Keeper of Records and Seals, also Master of Finance; R. W. Meadows, Master of Exchequer; Nelson Conn, Master at Arms; Charley Baerlein, Master of Work; A. D. Teater, Inner Guard and Robert Crouter, Outer Guard.

The Knights of Pythias have made an unusually good record the past year. They began 1921 with only twenty members. This year they begin with just three times twenty members and a "bushel of pep." Besides the sixty members they have six applications for membership on file and more coming in every meeting night. This will undoubtedly be the big year for Garrard Lodge No. 29, Knights of Pythias because their goal is three times sixty members by next January. This order is known as "The Young Man's Lodge," and we predict that the goal which they have set will be reached with some to spare.

Fish Supper

Hon. Jack Hiatt was host to a delightful fish supper given last Thursday night at the Paritan. About thirty of his friends accepted his hospitality and pronounced it one of the best of the season.

PHONE WIRES CUT

In Attempt to Rob Bank Of Bryantsville

What is believed to have been attempt to rob the Bank of Bryantsville last Saturday night was discovered Sunday morning, when R. P. Brown, Cashier, discovered a charged oxygen tank just outside one of the bank windows. When he attempted to notify the authorities at Lancaster, it was found that all the telephone wires leading out of Bryantsville, had been cut.

Authorities are investigating a clew to the effect that a garage owner at Perryville, more than twenty-five miles away in Boyle County, came there Sunday and identified the oxygen tank as having been stolen from his garage Saturday afternoon. Two acetylene gas tanks were missed at the same time, he said.

It is believed that the attempt is the work of amateurs who intended to cut the safe door with an improvised oxyacetylene torch. The robbers are believed to have been frightened away by Dr. B. C. Rose when he went to his office about 2 o'clock Sunday morning. He said that at that time he observed nothing suspicious.

Carrier—Price

One of the greatest surprises to the younger society of this city happened last Tuesday evening when it was learned that Miss Ruth Glen Carrier, the beautiful and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Steve Carrier was married to Mr. Joe Francis Price, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Price, both of this county.

They were married in the parlors of the LaFayette Hotel in Lexington, on the above mentioned afternoon at 4:00 P. M., by the Rev. Mark Collis, Christian minister of the first Christian church of that city, and in the presence of Messrs. Glass B. Carrier, brother of the bride and Joe Kavanaugh and Wm. Kinnaird, who have their headquarters in Lexington.

Miss Ruth never looked lovelier than she did on her wedding day. She wore a blue traveling suit with hat to match and carried a bouquet of Mrs. Ward roses. They left immediately for New York, and Washington, where they will spend their honeymoon before returning to Lancaster, where they will reside.

Miss Carrier is one of Lancaster's fairest maidens and is extremely popular, not only with the younger set, but has the love of everyone who has had the pleasure of knowing her. She is a graduate of the Lancaster High School, having received her diploma in 1918, and later graduating from Hamilton College. Miss Ruth has talent and charm that cannot be equaled, and the groom who was so fortunate and who so richly deserves the love that he has won is one of Lancaster's most promising young gentlemen. At present he is in the insurance business, having recently bought out the Fire Insurance Agency of Mr. Jas. A. Beazley.

Mr. Price is a graduate of the Lancaster High Schools and later attended Centre College.

The courtship of this handsome couple started long years ago while both were in their teens, however, their closest of friends did not suspect their serious intentions.

After about a week's sojourn they will return to Lancaster, and will be welcomed into the highest of Lancaster's society, where they both have played such a leading part.

The Record with their many friends, who have been fortunate enough to know them, is wishing that their married life shall be filled with perpetual happiness and sunshine.

Sixty-three Burials

Mr. S. B. Henry, sexton of the Lancaster cemetery, informs us that he had sixty-three burials in 1921. This shows a slight increase over former years, due possibly to the convenience of automobiles and funeral cars, thus eliminating to a great extent, the use of family burying grounds, as was so common in former years.

New Quarters

The Shoe Hospital, owned and operated by Messrs. Manley and Wilson, has been moved to the new quarters, recently occupied by P. B. Williams, adjoining the store of Goodloe and Walker Brothers. These gentlemen have been in Lancaster for a year or more and have built up a nice business, beside making many friends in the community, who will wish them continued success in their new quarters.

TOWN HONORS

WOMAN

Who Celebrates Her One Hundredth Anniversary

BORN IN GARRARD COUNTY

A special dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer from Higginsville, Mo., says that this town will honor the one hundredth birthday of Mrs. Amanda Belt Warren, who was born in Garrard County, Ky., near Lancaster. Citizens of Garrard county should also congratulate her and if anyone in the county happens to know just who Mrs. Warren was before her marriage, the Record would like to be advised. The Lancaster and Garrard County Chamber of Commerce, on behalf of the citizens of the community, might write Mrs. Warren a letter of congratulations.

The dispatch to the Enquirer says: "Higginsville, Mo., Jan. 7th.—The one hundredth birthday anniversary of Mrs. Amanda Belt Warren, who was born near Lancaster, Garrard County, Ky., in 1822, will be celebrated here tomorrow, Sunday January 8th.

In honor of the occasion the Christian church has planned a special service at which her grandson, Rev. W. R. Warren, St. Louis, editor of the World Call, will speak for the family, Mayor J. W. Stillwell for the city and Rev. A. C. MacKinney for the church. The Chamber of Commerce will present a birthday cake, on which will burn 100 candles.

Mrs. Warren is the oldest living member of the Christian Church in Missouri, having been converted at a revival meeting when she was 16 years old, and has been a member of the Christian Church during the 84 years since then.

Her descendants number 50; three children, 17 grandchildren, 28 great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren."

Quarterly Conference

The first quarterly conference, under the new form of county organization, of the Executive Committee and the Central Committee of the Christian Churches of the county will be held in Lancaster, Friday, Jan. 20th. The Executive Committee consists of the county officers whose names follow:

President, R. H. Batson; First Vice President E. B. Bourland; Second Vice President, Robert Gastineau; Third Vice President, Mrs. W. S. Carrier; and Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Fannie Dowden, of Paint Lick. The Central Committee consists of the above officers; County Elementary Superintendent, Mrs. Floyd Curtis; Secondary Superintendent, J. M. Edwards; Adult Superintendent, J. E. Stormes; and one representative from every congregation in the county. Where it has not already been done, it is hoped representatives to be present at the first quarterly meeting will be selected next Sunday. A State Worker will be present at this first meeting.

The above meeting will come under the new form of organization, which was adopted by practically all county conventions last summer and then by the State Convention at Louisville in September. The plan is simple and sensible and has in it great possibilities if the churches will get behind it and co-operate in every way.

Hughs

Friends here in Garrard county regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Nannie B. Hughs at her home in Ashland, Oregon, which occurred December 25th, 1921. Mrs. Hughs was born and reared in Garrard county and was in her seventy-first year.

She was a daughter of the late B. F. Jennings, of Danville, and a sister of Mrs. George Ballard, of this city. She together with her family moved to this far Western state about 19 years ago. The sympathy of the community goes out to Mrs. Ballard and other relatives in their sad loss.
